

Jacqui Gatt Head Volleyball Coach

Jacqui Gatt enters her 3rd season as the head volleyball coach of Illinois Institute of Technology volleyball team. In two seasons at the helm, Gatt has lead her to team an overall 29-40 record, including a trip to the CCAC Conference Tournament in 2011. She has also coached four different athletes to earn All-Conference Honors. Prior to Illinois Tech, Gatt served three seasons as the assistant coach for the Wayne State University volleyball team in Detroit, MI. Gatt helped lead the Warriors to a 51-33 record, three GLIAC tournament appearances in addition to coaching two players who received All-American Honors.

Gatt played her college career at Madonna University in Livonia, MI where some of her playing highlights include:

- 2004 Conference All-Freshman team
- 3 time All-Conference player
- 2 time All Region player
- 2007 National Libero of the Year Runner-up
- 2007 All-American
- 2007 All-American Scholar-Athlete.

CAMP FEATURES

Each camp is designed to meet the needs of the athlete. We offer individual attention to help with every aspect of the game by correcting and showing proper technique. Campers are placed by skill level, giving the player the opportunity to develop ball control.

The Illinois Institute of Technology Volleyball Camps will offer each player the opportunity to develop physically, mentally, emotionally, and socially. Our intent is to provide each camper with a meaningful experience through exposure to the fundamentals of the game.
