

Yes, We Can! Women in Entrepreneurship

Please join the CEO and entrepreneurs to watch the in person Webinar featuring the NCET (National Council of Entrepreneurial Tech Transfer) to celebrate the March is National Women's History Month!!

Free Pizza and soft drinks will be served!

GUEST SPEAKERS:

Carrie Shaw is the founder of Embodied Labs. Her mission is to revolutionize the way health care providers, caregivers, and patients learn about human health.

Cynthia is a serial entrepreneur/small business owner offering full-service brokerage services and real estate investment assets.

WEBINAR FEATURES SPEAKERS:

Gwen Walker, Founder of Albuquerque Sole Sisters

Gwen founded a running club and business based in Albuquerque, New Mexico.. Alongside running Albuquerque Sole Sisters, Gwen serves as a Market Manager for Whirlpool Corporation and has been with the company for 13 years.

Audrey Horst, Boston University PhD Student, NCET2 University Entrepreneur Fellow.

Under her PhD Advisor, Dr. Catherine Klapperich, Audrey has looked for ways to intersect applied science and innovation, Jane Diagnostics.

Saba Nafees, Texas Tech PhD Student, University Innovation Fellow, NCET2 University Entrepreneur Fellow.

Ambassador for the White House Initiative on Asian Americans & Pacific Islanders, and currently serves as a University Innovation Fellow .

Alyx Horace, Texas Tech Undergraduate, University Innovation Fellow, NCET2 Fellow.

Date: Friday, March 31st

Location: Wishnick Hall 113

Time: 5-7 pm

Register

Stuart School of Business

ILLINOIS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

University Contact: Nik Rokop tjain8@iit.edu(312-567-3564)

